Cambridge Bride and Husband She Is Suing

Woman Explains Case.
"I took Dorothy to get married," said Mrs. Hale. "When my husband and I separated we made an agreement not to further trouble one another. Shortly thereafter Mr. Hale put an advertisement in a Pitching paper forbidding any one to charge him with a violation of the agreement, and accordingly I sought revenge in the best possible way. I took Dorothy, but the child wanted to be with me. Now that I have my dear little girl I will not part with her under any circumstances."

The taking of little Dorothy has caused a sensation in Cambridge, where the Hale family is well known. Mrs. Hale, who has been married to Mr. Hale for a number of years, has been living in a pretty cottage at No. 12 Cambridge street.

Mrs. Hale, who is now residing at No. 12 Cambridge street, is a well-known figure in the neighborhood. She is a woman of about 40 years of age, and is well known to the neighbors. She is a woman of about 40 years of age, and is well known to the neighbors.

BARRIE, AUTHOR OF 'PETER PAN,' ASKS DIVORCE

LONDON, Oct. 7.—J. M. Barrie, the play-wright, has applied for a divorce from his wife. The case is down for trial at the next session of the law court here.

It was in 1894 that Mr. Barrie married his present wife. She was Miss Mary Ansell, the star of his first play, "Waikiki," London, which was produced in London several years ago.

Mrs. Barrie has appeared little in public life. She retired from the stage long immediately after her marriage and since then they have always appeared to be a devoted couple. They had no children, but they adopted Miss Pauline's daughter.

Bloated Stomach And Belching

Of Gas Is Prevented By Using Charcoal, Which Absorbs and Removes Stomach Gases.

The accumulation of gas in the stomach is caused in the following ways: 1. It may be swallowed in large quantities during certain emotional conditions of the stomach and foodstuffs. 2. It is often evolved from changes of the mucous membrane of the stomach. Transmitted from the blood. 3. Resulting from the decomposition of a portion of the small intestine, and in cases from a flat fermentation of gas with the large intestine. 4. Gas of an extremely offensive kind is produced by the decomposition of a morbid growth in the stomach, such as cancer, ulcer, tumors, etc. 5. The gases of food are more potent than others to cause gastric gas, including sugar, starch, beans, meat, etc.

To relieve the distressing symptoms of gastric distention of the stomach, it is not matter what the cause may be, but to find the cause and remove it. The remedy is charcoal, which directly absorbs all gastric gases, and indirectly cleaning the stomach and intestinal system from one end to the other as thoroughly as soap and water cleans the skin.

The late Dr. Leonard of England strongly advocated the use of yellow charcoal in the form of capsules for the alleviation of such symptoms as indigestion, fermentation, decomposition and bloating. It has been found extremely successful in relieving a variety of ailments, and changes in the large intestine, when administered in the form of an emulsion. Dr. Leonard's Charcoal Capsules have the very best form in which this great gas absorbent and purifier can be administered. They are composed of the finest willow coal, treated by a special carbonizing process, and after being combined with pure honey to render them palatable, they are compressed into a lozenge, which is as agreeable to the palate as candy, and no one could possibly object to their use.

Use to your disgust and purchase a package of these powerful little absorbents, which are sold in boxes of ten times their own volume in measure, but are sure to cure Stomach's Charcoal Lozenges. There are many cases where these lozenges are indicated on the market, and it may be that you have given one of these little lozenges a trial, and found that it did not give you relief. Do not, don't fail to try Stomach's Charcoal Lozenges, as their unique and powerful difference between them and the others will be so strong and so sure that you will find that you will never again desire that you will ever afterward decline all substitutes and insist on having this irreducibly superior brand.

Stomach's Charcoal Lozenges of all druggists. 25 cents a box.

Send us your name, address, and we will send a free trial package to you by return mail. Address P. A. Stuart Co., 201 State Building, Marshall, Michigan.

Jennings Fights Tigers.
We are in excellent shape, and our players are working better than ever before. Our pitchers are in the form and our infield is stronger than any other in the world. With our outfield composed of Dave Jones, Cobb and Crawford on stand, we are in the best of shape. We are here to win, and we mean to win. I am pleased to have such worthy foes to contend with.

With Jennings was the crew which played at yesterday's exhibition game for the benefit of the Red Sox. The veteran newspaper writer of New York. The players are all in good shape and anxious to begin the struggle.

In the second delegation was several of the Detroit pitchers and utility players. A few of the dead in the wood first were with this party. To Cobb, the former American League slinger with a wife, for merely a young southern boy, and his mother were in this party.

Mutin to Pitch Opener.
Manager Jennings said that he had most definitely decided to use Gault as the twirler in the first game. Should he change his mind, it will be in favor of Bill Dugan, who has been sick for the past few days with a slight attack of malaria. The pitcher is improving rapidly, however, and there is every possibility that he will be in condition to go into the box tomorrow in the event of Jennings desiring him to do so.

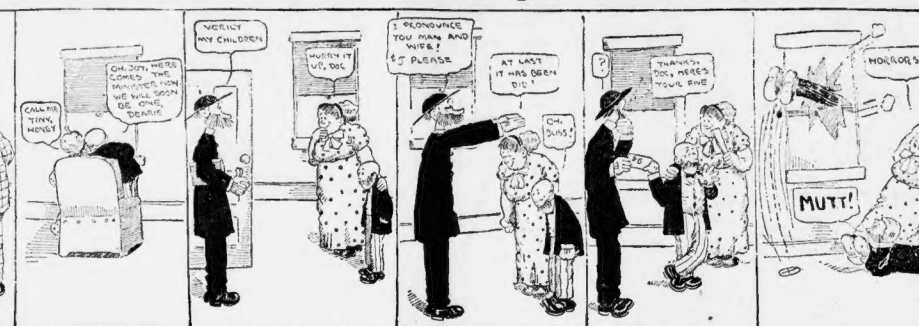

Dave Jones will play in the outfield in the place of McIntire, who has fallen off in his batting record. Smith or Strickland will do all the catching, and the infield will be made up of J. Jones, Fred, DeLoach, second; Cobb, short, and Moriarty, third.

Killian, the portable heater of the Tigers, will perform in any of the games. Jennings said that he was not at all sure of the way in which the Pirates have slaughtered the opposition during the national league season. When Manager Jennings made this announcement he added a little hint of the ability of the Boston team to pound left handed batters. He said that he was not impressed with the way the Pirates were handling the left handed pitcher, but that he was not at all sure of the way in which the Pirates were handling the left handed pitcher, but that he was not at all sure of the way in which the Pirates were handling the left handed pitcher.

In the second delegation was several of the Detroit pitchers and utility players. A few of the dead in the wood first were with this party. To Cobb, the former American League slinger with a wife, for merely a young southern boy, and his mother were in this party.

Mutin to Pitch Opener.
Manager Jennings said that he had most definitely decided to use Gault as the twirler in the first game. Should he change his mind, it will be in favor of Bill Dugan, who has been sick for the past few days with a slight attack of malaria. The pitcher is improving rapidly, however, and there is every possibility that he will be in condition to go into the box tomorrow in the event of Jennings desiring him to do so.

Dave Jones will play in the outfield in the place of McIntire, who has fallen off in his batting record. Smith or Strickland will do all the catching, and the infield will be made up of J. Jones, Fred, DeLoach, second; Cobb, short, and Moriarty, third.

Killian, the portable heater of the Tigers, will perform in any of the games. Jennings said that he was not at all sure of the way in which the Pirates have slaughtered the opposition during the national league season. When Manager Jennings made this announcement he added a little hint of the ability of the Boston team to pound left handed batters. He said that he was not impressed with the way the Pirates were handling the left handed pitcher, but that he was not at all sure of the way in which the Pirates were handling the left handed pitcher.

MAINEES OVER YALE TEAMS AT WORCESTER

WORCESTER, Oct. 7.—The Speedway Club has had its last outing for 1906, and the next outing will be on Nov. 1. It was the intention of the racing committee to have another meeting to decide the point winners, but during the past week several members of the committee have fallen ill, and it is more than likely the meeting will not be held on the date originally planned.

The annual meeting of the Speedway Club will be on November 1 and there is going to be some lively dogging there, as there were many things that could not be done during the past week. The racing committee was not able to get the meeting on the date originally planned, and the club is now in a position to give the best of the season.

Dave Jones will play in the outfield in the place of McIntire, who has fallen off in his batting record. Smith or Strickland will do all the catching, and the infield will be made up of J. Jones, Fred, DeLoach, second; Cobb, short, and Moriarty, third.

YALE TEAMS

NEW HAVEN, Oct. 7.—Yale's football prospects got a hard setback, judging from the feeling over the game played with Holy Cross on the 25th. Yale's record for the season is 12 to 10.

DESHLER MAY BOX WOLGAST

THE AMERICAN A. A. is making a big effort to get some strong material for coming meetings and have two in view for the October 26 date. Dave Deshler will be given a chance to clash with Al Wolgast, the first Milwaukee lad who made such a grand impression here against Matty Baldwin. This contest is a prize one and would show up either boy's chance with Matty Nelson for the lightweight world title.

Another match is one between Bill McKinnon, the star New England middleweight, and a local man of his class in the Middle West.

Nearly everybody in Boston reads the AMERICAN.

"A Gentleman From Mississippi" Is a True Story of American Life in Politics. You Should Not Miss It.

The readers of the Boston American know, fortunately, something about their own government, and they are INTERESTED in that government. This play that we recommend is a truthful picture of government at Washington.

The writing of this play and its very fine production by William A. Brady and Joseph R. Grismer reflects credit upon the American stage and the theatregoing public in this country. The play is purely American, the characters are all American, the colored men that appear on the stage are actually genuine negroes, not preposterous imitations.

Thomas Wise, who plays the part of Langdon, gives a most admirable impersonation. He IS ACTUALLY the individual that he represents.

This play, "A Gentleman From Mississippi," should be praised for the same reasons. It is an amusing play, full of laughter and sentiment from beginning to end, but it is, above all, AN INSTRUCTIVE PLAY. It emphasizes the power of truth and honesty, it makes the big audiences THINK. It is not like so many unworthy plays that merely amuse, and, too often, actually appeal to base emotions.

This power of a good play, a stage with a purpose, conscientious actors and managers cannot possibly be exaggerated. The play is SEEN and HEARD. Men and women gather together, and association increases the strength of their emotions. The reading of a book is an isolated process and impresses the average mind much less vividly than the existing presentation of a play, with music, lights, motion, live people, thought emphatically, artistically and vividly expressed.

Managers and actors should always have in mind Goethe's statement, that a good stage can do more for a people than any amount of police or law restrictions.

A stage with a purpose is a sign of civilization. The great period in Greece was the period of the great dramatists. The Greek stage reflects national intellect and character and one single tragedy by Euripides was a great favorite on the Athenian stage FOR FIVE HUNDRED YEARS—a run really worth talking about.

This play, "A Gentleman From Mississippi" is welcome, and we advise you to see it as soon as you can, because it is a play that reflects American thought and big American problems. It is a play excellently acted, although one that will probably not last five hundred years—let us hope the conditions which call for the play will be forgotten before five hundred years shall pass. It is a play that will last for many years, and it will always reflect credit upon those intelligent enough to write it, to appreciate its meaning and produce it.

The encouraging thing in the production of a good play like "A Gentleman From Mississippi" is the quick response from the audience to every honorable suggestion and to every biting comment on official corruption.

“The play’s the thing
Wherein I’ll catch the conscience of the King.”

That was said truly three hundred years ago, when Shakespeare wrote “Hamlet.” The play’s the thing to-day to catch the conscience of the people, to awaken the people to a keen realization of national truths, national ideals, and, when necessary, OF NATIONAL DISHONOR. Plays of this kind, let us hope, will be produced more and more frequently and rewarded with ever-growing success. The day will come when capable managers and actors will be ashamed to use their power aimlessly and purposelessly.

Comedy pure and simple we shall always have with us, but it will be a comedy with a purpose, the comedy of a Moliere or a Sophocles. We shall always have love stories on the stage, for young people must have their sentimental provender. But these love stories can be woven into plays of serious purpose, as in the case of "A Gentleman From Mississippi."

THAT is a good play, and that is why it is mentioned in this column. We propose never to mention here a book, or a play, unless we can advise our readers earnestly to READ the book or SEE the play, or unless we feel bound to advise the police to SUPPRESS the book or SUPPRESS the play.

A You will probably have to engage your seats well in advance for "A Gentleman From Mississippi," and we are glad of that. If the public wants good plays with a purpose, it must deserve them by APPRECIATING them.

If a prisoner is allowed out on bail to pay off debts of $7,000,000, would another prisoner get the same favor to pay off $700?

It's now the style to be kidnapped.
